GRAND ARMY.

Opening Day of the Thirtieth Annual Encampment.

A Brilliant Semi-Military and Civic Assemblage at St. Paul.

Total Membership of the Grand Army 385,406, of which 340,610 are in Good Standing—Total Number of Deaths During the Year Was 7,293.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 3.—Officially the 30th annual encampment of the G.
A. R. opened Thursday morning in the Auditorium before an immense audience of Grand Army men and citizens generally from far and near.

Gen. E. C. Mason, president of the St. Paul citizens committee, was chairman of the public exercises with which the encampment was opened. On the platform were high officials of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Commander-in-Chief Walker, vice-Commanders Hobson and Cosgrove, Surgeon General Whiting, Chaplain-in-Chief Iliff, members of the national staff, past commanders-in-chief and officers of the women's organizations. It was a brilliant semi-military and civic assemblage.

Chaplain Iliff offered prayer and a warm welcoming speech was made by Mayor Doran on behalf of St. Paul.
Capt. Henry A. Castle, chairman of the press committee spoke in a similar sentiment, and the Modoc club, of Topeka, Kas., sang "Up in Old St. Paul." Gov. Clough extended the greetings of Minnesota and Gen. Walker returned the thanks of the Grand Army for the lavish and hearty hospitality which had been showered upon the city's guests.

After the exercises all but Grand Army men were requested to leave the hall and the encampment went into executive session. The first business done was to hear the report of the commander-in-chief.

The report shows that the total membership of the Grand Army of the Republic is 385,406, of which 340,610 are in good standing and 44,796 are carried on the suspended list for non-payment of dues, a decrease in this list during the past year of 7,089. The gain by muster during the year was 13,467. In this recapitulation the department of Pennsylvania shows a loss of 5,553 members that have been erroneously carried on the rolls for several years and were counted in the last report.
The total loss during the year was 11,406, of which number 7,293 was by death, which is a decrease of 75 from last year.

The report of the quartermaster-general shows the finances to be in good condition, and that there has been a reduction in expenses aside from that paid out by order of the encampment in fitting up rooms for our archives and custodian's salary, and in prosecuting the Long pension case.

There was no apparent change in the contest for commander Thursday morning. The fight is conceded to be between Clarkson and Linehan, with the Omaha comrade slightly leading.

The New York delegates in caucus gave Adm. Meade only four votes, the rest going to the New Englander.

Another military street spectacle was provided for visitors Thursday morning in the parade of the First brigade, Minnesota Military guard, comprising the first, second and third regiments of infantry, two batteries of artillery and cavalry. The brigade was commanded by Brig. Gen. W. B.
Bend. Gov. Clough, as commander-in-chief, rode at the head with his staff.

LOUISVILLE HIGHWAYMEN

Commit a Murderous Assault Upon Motor-man Stone.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 3.—Preston C. Stone is at St. Mary and Elizabeth hospital, unconscious and in a dying condition, as a result of an attack by highwaymen at Shawnee park Tuesday night. Stone was a motor-man on a street car, which left Twenty-sixth street, west bound, at 10:40 o'clock. At midnight, the car not having been reported, another car was sent in search of it. Stone was found lying unconscious on the ground alongside the car. His money-box, containing $25, was missing. Stone has been unconscious ever since. Ed Berry, colored, was arrested on suspicion. He was hanging about Fountain Ferry park Wednesday night.

CHAMBERLAIN'S VISIT

To This Country Has No Political Significance Whatever.

New York, Sept. 3.—Lt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, British secretary of state for the colonies, was a passenger on the White Star Line steamer Teutonic which arrived Wednesday morning from Liverpool. When interviewed at Quarantine, he said his visit was of a purely personal nature and was taken for the purpose of visiting Mrs. Chamberlain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C.
Endicott, of Danvers, Mass. His visit, he said, had absolutely no political significance whatever, and will be a brief one, as he intends returning home in about a fortnight.

Young Men's Sound Money Club.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 3.—Steps were taken Wednesday to form a young men's sound money club, the membership of which is to be recruited from the different colleges. Fletcher Dobyns, of Michigan, a Yale graduate, is the chief promoter of the movement.
He presided at a meeting held in the Illinois headquarters Wednesday evening. John S. Weaver, of Indianapolis university was secretary. A meeting, to complete the organization, will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Big Fire at Bridgeport, Ct.

BRIDGEPORT, Ct., Sept. 3.—The pork packing establishment of Plumb & Winton was on fire at 2 a. m. Thursday, and will probably be a total loss.
The loss will be more than $100,000.
The Park City theater, the Windsor hotel, the Emergency hospital and the office of the Bridgeport Standard are in danger at this time.

CONDENSED NEWS

Gathered From All Parts of the Country by Telegraph.

P. F. McGuicken was appointed postmaster at Bancroft, W. Va., Wednesday.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., and his wife, formerly Miss Wilson, of New York, have arrived in London.

Adm. Brin, Italian minister of marine, has asked for a credit of four million lire for the purpose of mobilizing the Atlantic squadron.

The North German Lloyd steamer Trave, which sailed from Southampton at 3 p. m. Wednesday for New York has $4,220,000 in gold on board.

Postmaster R. L. Jarvis, of Benton Harbor, was nominated for congress by the democrats, populists and union silverites of the Fourth Michigan district.

John S. Poyen, a dealer in carriage findings at Amesbury, Mass., made an assignment Wednesday. Liabilities, $100,000. Chas. H. Palmer, jr., carriage manufacturer, has made an assignment. Liabilities, $30,000.

All of the banks in Constantinople and Galata, except the Credit Lyonnais, have again opened their doors for business. Practically no business was transacted but it is nevertheless a fact that a commercial confidence is returning.

The town of Bolondron, in the province of Matanzas, was attacked by the rebels. Thirty-two houses in the town and 19 beyond the town limits were set on fire by the attacking party and destroyed. The rebels also sacked the stores. Two female and one male resident were killed.

An unknown woman, about 30 years old, leaped from the platform of the elevated station at 125th street and Third avenue, New York, Thursday morning and, landing on the track in front of an approaching train, was cut to pieces. Her unborn child, fell from the track into the street.

By previous arrangement Li Hung Chang, the Chinese ambassador, Wednesday morning received a limited number of representatives of the press in his apartments at the Waldorf. The newspaper men were presented to the viceroys by Mr. Edward B. Drew, commissioner of railway taxes in China.
The viceroys' medical advisor, Dr.
Mark, acted as interpreter.

The second day's session of the Irish race convention in Dublin opened with a full attendance of delegates. Father Flynn, of Waterford, proposed the appointment of a committee composed of home and foreign delegates empowered to draft a platform upon which all sections of the Irish party could unite and work loyally. The motion was opposed and finally withdrawn. The convention then adjourned.

The Cork Herald, an organ of the healyite faction of the Irish national party, published a long article Wednesday morning commenting upon Tuesday's proceedings of the Irish convention in Dublin. The convention, the Herald declares, proves to be not a meeting of the world's representatives of the Irish race, but a mere sectional gathering, the real purpose of which is to replenish the finances of a discredited section of the Irish party, headed by a discredited leader.

Disastrous Morning Blaze.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 3.—A special from Elkhart, Ky., says: Fire was discovered in the store of H. C. Miller Thursday morning. The fire department was unable to subdue the flames, and they communicated to other buildings, destroying six stores in all. The loss is $15,000. The fire was of incendiary origin.

Murderous Assault.

LOUISA, Ky., Sept. 3.—Victor Caperton attacked Dave Ward, a restaurant keeper, here Wednesday morning, firing one shot at him, the bullet passing between his legs. Ward seized a hatchet and struck Caperton several times, inflicting wounds from which he may die. The affair occurred in Ward's saloon.

"A Scorching"

Battle Ax PLUG

Tobacco Dealers say, that "BATTLE AX" is a "scorching" because it sells so fast. Tobacco Chewers say, it is a "scorching" because 5 cents' worth goes so far. It's as good as can be made regardless of cost. The 5 cent piece is almost as large as the other fellows' 10 cent piece.

A Desperado Killed.

PIKEVILLE, Ky., Sept. 3.—In attempting to capture George O. Quinn, a Virginia desperado who killed Everett Fowler, in Russell county, Va., a week ago, the posse fired on him, killing him instantly. Quinn was surrounded by the posse and made a desperate fight before he was killed, emptying his revolver. Quinn shot Fowler through the head while the latter was hunting squirrels, killing him instantly.

Li Hung Chang Leaves New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Li Hung Chang and suite said good-by to New York Thursday morning when they crossed over to Jersey City at 8 o'clock en route for Philadelphia. The quietness of his departure was in marked contrast to the enthusiasm which greeted his arrival here. The big crowd gathered on West street did not even give him a farewell cheer.

Steamer Rosedale Sinks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The steamer Rosedale, with 150 passengers on board, was struck off Broome street, East river, about noon, by a Twenty-third street ferryboat, and sank in about five minutes. The Rosedale was on her way from Bridgeport at the time.
All the passengers, it is said, were picked up by passing craft. They saved none of their effects, however.

Electric Car Collides With a Train.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 3.—Thursday morning the electric car bound to the state fair grounds was run into by a Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad train at the crossing near St. Anthony Park. Fortunately nobody was killed.
Several persons were injured.

Bicycle Collision.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., Sept. 3.—James Waterfall, assistant bookkeeper in the Lawrence bank, was injured in a bicycle collision with a colored wheelman. Both were riding rapidly and neither had a lantern.

Bond Family Remains.

RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 3.—The annual reunion of the Bond family was held in the grove of William Bond, just south of the town of Green's Fork.
The attendance was large, as the members of the family in the vicinity number 200 or more.

Skull Crushed With a Crowbar.

LAFORTE, Ind., Sept. 3.—In an effort
